

Faculty of Life Sciences

NEUROSCIENCE RESEARCH Seminar Series

Seminars are at 4:00 pm
A.V. Hill (seminar room 1.006), unless stated otherwise

First Semester 2010/11

September 22 nd J. Miyan	Andrew Copp - 12:00 noon University College London (UK)	Neural tube defects: Genetics, development and prevention
October 13 th J. Gigg Michael Smith Lecture Theatre	Alex Easton University of Durham (UK)	Which type of when, and when to use which: how models of episodic memory in animals help us understand the biological basis of memory
October 27 th I. Schiessl	Myles Jones University of Sheffield (UK)	The biology behind brain mapping
November 24 th E. Pinteaux	Violaine See University of Liverpool (UK)	Single live cell imaging to reveal intracellular transcription factors dynamics: a focus on hypoxia-induced signalling
December 1 st S. Allan 3.005 AV Hill	David Bennett - 12:00 noon King's College London (UK)	Neuro-glial interactions and the pathogenesis of neuropathic pain
December 8 th R. Petersen Michael Smith Lecture Theatre	Troy Margie National Institute for Medical Research, London (UK)	The physiology and connectivity of sensory receptive fields
December 15 th R. Petersen	Vincenzo Crunelli University of Cardiff (UK)	Thalamo-cortical oscillations in health and disease states

All enquiries to Dr Emmanuel Pinteaux, E-mail: emmanuel.pinteaux@manchester.ac.uk
Phone: 551825