

CHSTM LUNCHTIME SEMINARS

October - December 2011

1 p.m. in Room 2.57, Simon Building, Brunswick Street. Everyone is welcome.

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| 4th October | Matthew Paskins, UCL
Simple Machines |
| 11th October | Gareth Millward, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine
Disability and Voluntarism: An effective force in policy making? 1965-1995 |
| 18th October | Anna Carlsson-Hyslop, University of Cardiff
Governing transitions in the manufactured gas industry |
| 25th October | Nicholas Duvall, University of Manchester
"I cannot say this offers positive proof": A Case Study in Forensic Medicine in 1930s Scotland |
| 1st November | Dmitry Myelnikov, University of Cambridge
Adventures of Supermouse: Communication networks in the making of transgenic mice, 1980-1985 |
| 8th November | No Seminar |
| 15th November | Jay Kennedy, University of Manchester
Controversies over Plato and Ancient Greek Science |
| 22nd November | Jakob Whitfield, University of Manchester t.b.a |
| 29th November | Roberto Cantoni, University of Manchester
The Pillars of Reconstruction: Hydrocarbon prospecting in post-war France and Italy |
| 6th December | Neil Pemberton, University of Manchester
The birth of the psychopath in mid-twentieth century Britain |
| 13th December | James Goodchild, University of Exeter
The Ambiguous role of the chief scientific adviser |

For more information on any of the above seminars please contact:

david.hirst-3@postgrad.manchester.ac.uk