

CHSTM LUNCHTIME SEMINARS

February - April 2011

1 p.m. in Room 2.57, Simon Building, Brunswick Street. Everyone is welcome.

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| 8th February | Imogen Clarke, University of Manchester
The Construction and Destruction of 'Classical Physics' |
| 15th February | Carry Van Lieshout, Kings College London
Water supply in Eighteenth century London |
| 22nd February | Neil Pemberton, University of Manchester
Barnaby and Burgho meet Jack the Ripper? Bloodhounds in the late Victorian imagination |
| 1st March | Wahida Amin, University of Salford
Humphry Davy, Poetry and the Bristol Romantic Circles |
| 8th March | Caitlin Wylie, University of Cambridge
A sociological investigation of fossil preparation and paleontological knowledge |
| 15th March | Jennifer Goodare, University of Manchester
Henry Dale and the New Jerusalem: The Red Flag at the Royal Society (1940-51) |
| 22nd March | Robert Smal, University of Manchester
TBC |
| 29th March | Hannah Chalk, University of Manchester
How are natural objects attributed value |
| 5th April | David Hirst, University of Manchester
Social History of the formation of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) |
| 12th April | Louise Jenkins, University of East Anglia
Nineteenth Century Midwifery Instruments – The Vectis |
| 19th April | Andrew Bowman, University of Manchester
Stabilising change: Knowledge, expertise and the contradictions of rural development in Zambia, 1945-2010 |
| 26th April | Sam Robinson, University of Manchester
Diplomacy in the Deep; Competition, Co-operation and surveillance in cold war European Oceanography |

For more information on any of the above seminars please contact:

Alexander.hall@postgrad.manchester.ac.uk