

Physiology and Pharmacology External Seminar Series

Mondays 1 pm AV Hill Rm 1.006

March 28, 2011 *
Host: Karen Cosgrove

Prof Lucilla Poston (King's College London UK)
"Born to be big? How our early life environment may 'programme' obesity"
The Physiological Society's GL Brown Prize Lecture* in MICHAEL SMITH LECTURE HALL

April 4, 2011
Host: Kath Hinchliffe

Dr Sandip Patel, (University College London, UK)
"Calcium Signalling by NAADP: New stores, New pores, New chores"

April 11, 2011
Host: Alison Gurney

Prof Lucia Sivilotti (University College London, UK)
"Glycine channels: a model system for the molecular function of Cys-loop receptors"

April 18, 2011
Hosts: Mark Dunne
and Karen Cosgrove

Prof Noel Morgan (Peninsula Medical School, UK)
"Life and Death Decisions for the Pancreatic Beta Cell: The Role of Free Fatty Acids"
The Novo Nordisk Annual Seminar*

May 9, 2011
Host: Holly Shiels

Prof Michael Ferenczi (Imperial College London, UK)
"Exploring the effect of strain on myosin cross-bridges in skeletal and cardiac muscle"

May 16, 2011
Host: Gill Edwards

Prof Sue Wray (University of Liverpool, UK)
"Uterine Ca signaling and contractility in health and disease"

May 23, 2011
Host: Don Ward

Prof Alastair Hutchinson (University of Manchester, UK)
"Phosphate absorption and transport – clinical significance for the dialysis patient"

All enquires to Holly Shiels x55092
holly.shiels@manchester.ac.uk

