

Endocrinology & Diabetes Research Group Seminars

January to April 2012

Fridays 1.00-2.00pm

Room 1.006, AV Hill Building

Date	Title/Topic	Speaker
20 January	'Pituitary Plasticity' Michael Smith Lecture theatre	Paul le Tissier MRC National Institute for Medical Research
10 February	'Systems Microscopy, what is it all about? NFkappaB'	Dave Spiller Senior experimental officer
17 February	'The use of proteomics in normal and leukaemic stem cell research'	Tony Whetton Head of School of Cancer & Enabling Sciences and Professor of Cancer Cell Biology
24 February	'Effects of maternal nutrition and stress on the placenta'	Rebecca Lee Jones Lecturer in Maternal & Fetal Health
02 March	'Neuroendocrine biomarkers in small cell lung cancer' 'Redox metabolism in the fourth dimension: feedback regulation between circadian clock and antioxidant pathways'	Rachel Stovold Postdoctoral research associate Vanja Perkovic-Vaughn Postdoctoral research associate
9 March	'Human papillomavirus mediated cell transformation deregulates PERIOD2 protein levels and the circadian clock' 'Analysis of the glucocorticoid receptor complexome'	Nicole Gossan 2 nd Year PhD student Toryn Poolman Postdoctoral research associate
23 March	'A Network Analysis of Gene Expression through Childhood: Implications for Paediatric Medicine'	Adam Stevens Postdoctoral research associate
30 March	'New insights into mechanisms driving seasonal physiology'	Sandrine Dupre Postdoctoral research associate

Please contact Laura Matthews if you have any enquiries regarding these seminars.

Laura.Matthews@manchester.ac.uk